We could not have been more impressed and pleased with The Copper Street Brass for our wedding. They were extremely talented in playing both the traditional wedding arrangements in addition to wide ranging requests from family and friends. They performed exceptionally during the important moments while blending into the background during other parts of the festivities. We would gladly recommend them to anyone looking for a band to be part of their wedding memories.

The Copper Street Brass made an excellent addition to our event. The musicians were professional, amiable, and enthusiastic. They're an incredibly talented group and our customers were delighted with their performance.
